IMPORTANT – RULES and REGULATIONS:

1. The entire submission package should be complete or the entry will be considered invalid. Invalid entries will not be accepted.
2. There are no refunds for entry form fees.
3. Any material submitted will become property of the Surrey International Film Festival and might be used for publicity purposes.
4. The Surrey International Film Festival will not be responsible for any mailing/postage costs, or the condition of entry upon arrival. The Surrey International Film Festival will accept responsibility for entries after they come into possession in good condition.
5. If awards are granted, the Surrey International Film Festival will print names on certificates and trophies as per this registration form. Print clearly, and add any information you deem it to be necessary.
6. Any exceptions to the festival regulations must be authorized by the festival directors. THE FESTIVAL RETAINS THE RIGHT TO DECIDE ON ALL MATTERS NOT SPECIFICALLY DEALT WITHIN THESE REGULATIONS.

Filmmakers retain all rights to ownership of their work. The Surrey International Film Festival will not accept responsibility for copyright infringement, falsified information, contract or legal issues incurred by the applicant or their submission. The duty of obtaining copyright and protecting any proprietary interests in the material belongs solely to the applicant(s). Teachers may submit work on behalf of their students, but all entries need to be cosigned by a parent or guardian if the student is below 18 years of age.

I am the owner or co-worker of this original work and am submitting it for review and have the full authority to submit the film to the Surrey International Film Festival. While I understand that I retain all rights to ownership of the work, I hereby give the Surrey International Film Festival permission to feature, advertise, display—in whole or in part—the work titled and described above. I understand that the organizers of this festival cannot be held responsible for the accidental damage or loss of any material submitted. I further understand that my entry is valid only upon completion of all the conditions set forth above, and the material submitted is my sole original and authentic work.

I understand the rules and regulations of the Surrey International Film Festival and its elements and I accept them.

I have read and understood these conditions:
